

The Great
FEAST,

At the Inthronization of the Reverend Father in God, GEORGE NEAVILL
Arch-Bishop of Yorke, Chancellour of England, in the sixt yeere of
EDWARD the fourth.

Wherein is Manifested the great
Pride and vaine glory of that
PRELATE.

The Copy of this Feast was found inrolled in the Tower of London, and was taken out by Mr. Noy His Majesties late Attorney Generall.

---

Printed according to Order.

---

LONDON,

Printed for Edwards Husbands, Aprill the first 1645.

Gift of Ernest B. Davis of Boston

Printed according to Order

1046453

T H E
Great Feast at the Inthronization of the Reverend Father in God, George Neavill, Archbishop of Yorke, Chancellour of England, in the 6 years of Edward the Fourth, &c.

Heat, three hundred quarters.
Ale, three hundred Tunne.
Wine one hundred tunne.
Hypocras, one Pipe.
Oxen, one hundred and foure.
Wilde Bull, six.
Muttons, one thousand.
Veales, three hundred and foure.
Porkes, three hundred and foure.

Swanns, foure hundred.

Geese, five thousand.

Capons, seven thousand.

Piggs, three thousand.

Plovers, foure hundred.

Quailes, one hundred dozen.

Fowles called Rayes, two hundred dozen.

Peacocks, foure hundred.

Mallards and Teales, foure thousand.

Cranes, two hundred and foure.

Kidds, two hundred and foure.

Chickens, three thousand.

Pigeons, foure thousand.

Conyes, foure thousand.

Bytternes, two hundred.

Hernshawes, foure hundred.

Pheasants, two hundred.

Partridge, five hundred.

Woodcocks, foure hundred.

Curlews, one hundred.

Egritts, one thousand.

Staggs, Bucks, and Roes, five hundred and four.

Pasties of Venison cold, one hundred and three.

Pasties of Venison hot, one thousand five hundred.

Pikes

Pikes and Breames, five hundred and eight.

Parted Dishes of Ielly, three thousand.

Plaine Dishes of Ielly, three thousand.

Cold Tarts, one hundred and three.

Hot Custards, two thousand.

Porpisses and Seales, twelve.

Cold Custards, three thousand.

Of all kindes of sweet meates abundance.

Estates sitting at the high Table in the Hall.

First the Arch-Bishop in his Estate.

On his right hand, the Bishop of London.

The Bishop of Durham, and the Bishop of Elie.

Vpon his left hand, the Duke of Suffolke, the Earle of Oxford, and the Earle of Worcester.

At the second Table in the Hall.

The Abbot of Saint Maries, the Abbot of Fountains

The Abbot of Salley, the Abbot of Rovens, the Abbot of Wheatly, the Abbot of Mewe, the Prior of Durfme, the Abbot of Whallie, the Abbot of Kirk-fall, the Abbot of Byland, the Abbot of Selbey, the Prior of Briglenton, the Prior of Gisbourn, and other priors, to the number of eightene.

At the third Table in the Hall.

The Lord Mountague, the Lord Cromwell, the Lord Dacars, the Lord Scroope, the Lord Oagle with 48. Knights and Esquires, at that table.

At the fourth Table there.

The Dean of Yorke, the Minister, the Dean of Savours, with the Brethren of the Minister.

At the fift Table in the Hall.

The Maior of the staple of Callis, and the Mayor of Yorke, with all the Worshipfull men of the City.

At the sixt Table there.

The Iudges of the Law, 4. Barrons of the Kings Exchequer, and 26 learned men of the Law.

At the last table in the Hall.

Threescore and nine Worshipfull Esquires, wearing the Kings Badge and Livery.

Estates sitting in the chiefe Chamber.

The Duke of Glocester, the Kings Brother, on his right hand, the Dutchesse of Suffolke, on his left hand, the Countesse of Westmerland, the Countesse of Northumberland, and two of the Earle of Warwicks daughters.

At the second Table there.

The Baronesse of Graystoke with three other Baronesses, and twelve other Ladies.

At the third Table there.

Eighteen Gentlewomen of the said Ladies.

Estates sitting in the second Chamber at the first Table.

The Old Dutchesse of Suffolke, the Countesse of Warwick, the Countesse of Oxford, the Lady Hastings and the Lady Fitz-bugh.

At the second Table there.

The Lady Huntly, the Lady Strangelych, and eight other Ladies, sitting at the table there.

Estates sitting in the Great Chamber at the first table.

The Bishop of Lincolne, the Bishop of Chester, the Bishop of Exeter, and the Bishop of Carlisle.

At the second table there.

The Earle of Westmerland, the Earle of Northumberland; the Lord Fitz-bugh, the Lord Stanley, and ten Barons more.

At

At the third table there.

Fourteen Gentlemen, and fourteen Gentlewomen of Worship.

In the lower Hall.

Gentlemen, Franchlins, and head Yeomen, one hundred and two, twice filled and served.

The Names of the great Officers there.

The Earle of Warwick as Steward.

The Earle of Northumberland as Treasurer.

The Lord Mastings Comptroller.

The Lord Willoughby, Carver,

The Lord John of Buckingham, Cup-bearer.

Sir Richard Strangwich, Sewer.

Sir Walter Worley, Marshall of the Hall.

Eight Knights of the Hall.

Eight Esquires for the same.

Two other Sewers for the same.

Sir John Mallvoery as Ewer.

Greystock and Neavill, keepers of the Cubbert.

Sir John Brecknock, Supervisor of the Hall.

Servants in the Galleries being servants of Noble men 100 and more, twice filled and served.

Officers, and servants of Officers, 1000.

Of other servants, with turne Broaches 1500.

Cookes in the Kitchen 60.

FINIS.

